Index

advancement 8–9, 89; police force, London 112–5 African Americans 154–5, 161 age, Sweden, career mobility and 245–52, 253, 258–260 agriculture 68–9; Germany 261–2; Sweden 231–3 agriculture, England 281–304; family origins 283–5; job mobility 285–9; job stability 295–301; marriage 282–9, 302; migration 283–4, 289–92; wages 292–5; World War I and II 299–300
Alien Labour Act 133
American Federation of Labor (AFL) 148 apprenticeship 48–9, 148, 178, 264 archives 3
Argentina, printing industry (1880–1930) 164–87 arrangiarsi alla canesca 312, 315 Australia, Union Bank of 51 autobiographical records 19–20, 29–30 banking: Lloyd’s Bank 24, 51, 84–97; Union Bank of Australia 51 benefits, police force, London 107, 110–11 binding 171
birth control, Great Britain (1920s to 1970s) 215–6 boycott, printing industry, Argentina 179 British Post Office 24, 85–6, 90–1 bureaucracy 10, 11
bureaucratic career, emergence 85–9 bureaucratic management structures, hierarchical 10–11
Cambridge University, women graduates (1920s to 1970s) 207–25; paid work 217–23; patterns of employment 210–212; social and demographic context 212–17
Canadian Pacific Railway, trade unions (1903–29) 25–6, 126–44; centralized wage bargaining (1917–22) 135–9; pre-1914 129–130; strike (1908) 130–135; U.S. vs. 136–42; Winnipeg General Strike 139–42; workforce 127–8 career: defined 5–8; formal 8; historical influences 8–17; neo-classical perspective 262–3; structure 24–7; typology of 7–8, 8–9; see also informal careers career, constructing (1840–1940) 79–100; Weber and 81 career ladders; formal 89; theoretical perspective 81–4; see also internal labour markets career paths 7–8
career patterns 3–4, 24; chemists, Great Britain 331–4 career profiles, life-time 36
census records 21
chemists, Great Britain 33–4, 319–37; career mobility 325–7; career patterns 331–4; career stability 328–9; career success 329–331; the profession 323–5, 335; professional societies 323–5, 330–331
census records 21, 234–5
civil service, Great Britain, women and 211–2 class 80; Great Britain, 212–3; Sweden 230–234 clerical workers 92
cohort differences 68 college graduates, women, England (1920s to 1970s) 207–25 Compañía General de Fósforos 175–6 company records 18–19, 146–7, 175–8, 309 composition 169–170, 171 compositors 172–3, 178 conferences, source of volume 4–5 contracts 13
cost of living 137, 138 crafts and craft workers: Argentina 167; Canada 129; unions 142; United States, 148, 149 cultural framing model 83–4
Davies, Emily 208
Demographic Data Base 22, 234–7 disciplinary perspectives 23–4 discrete-time models 60–61 discrimination 16–17, 71 domestic responsibilities, Great Britain 221, 222–3 domestic service 195
duration analysis 271–2; see also event history analysis earnings hypothesis, Germany 274–8 economic approach 6–7, 23, 42–55 education 14–15, 36, 62, 63; records 19; women 29–30, 212–3; see also apprenticeship; teachers; training eight-hour day 137
Einbürgerungsakten 264–8, 278–9 employment: categories 91; conditions 68; patterns 117; practices 50; records 45 employment stability; see job stability English Woman’s Journal 196–7 event-history-analysis 56–76; advantages 57–8; data and methods 58–61; see also duration analysis experience 13, 104
factory work, Italy (1900–29) 305–17 family: farm workers’ origins, England 283–5; size, Great Britain (1920s to 1970s) 215–6; steelworkers, Italy 312–5 farm workers, England 31–2, 281–304 Federación Gráfica Bonaerense, Argentina 167–8 fire insurance; see insurance formal institutions 35 fractured careers 8, 218–22 gender 28–30, 71; see also women
Germany, career formation in Munich (1895–1910) 261–280; earnings hypothesis 274–8; economics and history and 262–4; learning hypothesis 271–4
Girton College graduates 207–8 (1920s to 1970s) 207–25; paid work 217–23; patterns of employment 210–212; social and demographic context 212–17
Gold watch path 7
government records 21, 51
Grand Trunk Railway 126
Great Britain: agricultural labour (19th to 20th century) 281–304; Cambridge University government records 21, 51
Great Western Railway 24, 84–97 hazard curve 59, 61, 272; see also duration analysis health insurance; see insurance Heimatrecht 265–6
Henderson, Edmund 109 hiring, steelworkers, Italy 311 human capital theory 43, 63, 81, 271 husbands, Great Britain, attitude to wives working 219 incentives 102, 105, 107, 123 income, regular 105–6 individual characteristics 61–4 Industrial Disputes Investigation Act (IDIA) 130–131, 134 industrial unrest, Canada (1917–22) 135–9 industrialism, logic of 9–10 industrialization 30–31, 36, 66 industrialization, Sweden 229–260; career mobility 237–44; career mobility by age 245–52; social classes 230–234 industry-specific skills 31 inflation 135
informal careers 8–9; paths 30–34; structure 13, 35, 36
Index

Institute of Chemistry 323, 324–5, 330–331, 334 insurance: fire, Great Britain 20, 28–9, 197–9; health, Germany 20–21, 266–7 intergenerational mobility 30, 56–7, 275–7, 283–5 internal labour markets 11–13, 34–5 International Association of Machinists (IAM) 130, 131, 135 interviews 58
job ladders: police, Great Britain 51; railroad workers, U.S. 149, 157–8, 161 job stability 52; chemists, Great Britain 325, 328–9, 332–4, 335; farm workers, England 295–301; police force, England 102, 105–6; printing industry, Argentina 165, 182–3; railroad workers, Canada 122, 124, 126–44; railroad workers, U.S. 145–63; see also job mobility; tenure job-matching and job-shopping models 63 labor market: changes in 68–70; types 66–8 labourers: England 286; Italy 310 landowners, steelworkers, Italy 312–5 law, as a career for women, Great Britain 219–220, 221 layoffs, railway workers: Canada 127; U.S. 159 learning hypothesis, Germany 270, 271–4 life-time jobs 45; see also job stability linotype 169, 172–3
linotype mechanics 177
linotypists 173–4, 177
Lloyd’s Bank 24, 51, 84–97
London (Victorian) 194
longitudinal data 3, 17–18 long-term employment 42, 44, 46 macro characteristics 65–73 management bureaucracies 8–9 management structure, Germany vs Britain 10–11 managerial capitalism 10–11 market forces 134
marriage: age 214; discrimination 17; farm workers, England 282–9, 302; paid work and 210, 212; percentage of women 213; professions and 214–5; women, London (19th century) 191, 192, 194, 197, 205; women, Great Britain (1920s to 1970s) 217, 219, 221, 223 mass production 49, 148
meander path 8, 35
mechanics 25–6
mechanization, steelworkers, Italy 307, 315 medicine, Great Britain: as a career for women, 220, 221; job mobility 321–2 methodological perspectives 23–4 Metropolitan Police of London 24–5, 101–25; advancement 112–5; ambition 118; behaviour and discipline 123; conditions of service 106–12; dismissals, 105; philanthropists 110–11; policies 105–6; promotion 112, 115–22; promotion; strike 109, 110; turnover 103–5, 108–9, 110; wages 119 micro characteristics 70–72 middle class, London (18th and 19th century) 192 middle management 10 migration 7, 8, 15–16, 30–31, 63; farm workers, England 283–4, 289–92; printing industry, Argentina 164–5; railroad workers, Canada 134–5; steelworkers, Italy 307–8; Sweden 241–4; working class, Germany 262, 265, 269–270, 275–6, 278
military service 136
Index

mobility: see intergenerational mobility; intragenerational mobility; job mobility; migration modern career 3
modern universal values 9 modernization hypothesis 71-3 monotype 169–170
monotypists 177
motherhood 221; see also family

New Deal 149
new labor history 3
new social history 3

obituaries, British chemists 319–20 occupational hierarchy 6 occupational mobility; see job mobility occupational records 22 occupational structure, Sweden 238 organizational structure 7 Ortega y Radaelli 176–7 ownership, Britain 10–11

panel data 58
parametric hazard models 60, 61, 272 parents 64; see also intergenerational mobility patronage 93
payroll records 18
Peel, Robert 114
pensions: policemen, England 106, 107; railway workers, Canada 127 personnel: departments 13; policies 35; records 18–19, 59 piecework: printing industry, Argentina 171–2; railway workers, Canada 135 police force, London; see Metropolitan Police of London police registration, Germany 267, 269 population: data 58, 59–60; registers 21–2 Post Office, British 84–97
printing 170–171
printing industry, Argentina (1880–1930) 164–87; beginnings 168–9; careers 174–83; government regulation 173–4; industry and labour 167–74; mass production 175; mechanization 169, 175; production phases 169–71 productivity 62–3, 64
professional organizations, records 19 professions 15; knowledge-based 33–4 promotion 9, 93–6; ladders 51; police force, England 102–3, 113–22 psychological approach 6 Pullman Palace Car Company, repair shop workers (1915–1970) 26–7, 145–63; career choices 150–161; databases 150–151; employee work structure 147–150; postwar period 160–161; records 146–7; shops 150; tenure 151 quits; policemen England 107–8; railway workers, U.S. 159–60 race 26–7; African Americans 154–5, 161; discrimination 16–17 Radaelli 174–6

Railroad Shopmen’s Strike 148, 151–3
Railway Employees’ Department (R.E.D.) of A. F. of L. 136 railways, Canada: Canadian Pacific Railway 126–44; Grand Trunk Railway 126; railways, Great Britain: Great Western Railway 24, 84–97 railways, U.S.: federal control 136; private control 138; Pullman Palace Car Company 145–63 recommendaions, printing industry, Argentina 177 records, 18–22
recruitment 9; farm workers, England 282, 283–5, 302; police force, England 111–3 religion, discrimination 16–17 repair shops 25–6
residence; see landowners respectability, women, Great Britain 191–2, 195–6, 205 retention; see job stability; turnover right censoring 59–60
Roosevelt, Franklin D. 149 running trades brotherhoods 129; see also unions Saffat 32–3; 305–17; hiring 311; training 311; workforce 306–7 sawmills, Sweden 233–4
schoolteaching, Great Britain (1920s to 1970s) 47–8, 217–8
Index 343

search theory 68
secretarial work, Great Britain (1920s to 1970s) 218 segmentation theory 71–2 self-employment women, London (19th century) 201–5 semi-parametric hazard model 60, 262–4 seniority 13, 27, 62; railway workers, Canada 126, 142; railway workers, U.S., 146, 147–8, 149, 161 separate spheres 193
service industry 68–9
shop workers 129–130
shopkeeping 201–3
signaling hypothesis 62 significant others, effect of 64–5 skills: general 43, 46–9, 52, 53; industry-specific 262–4; specific 12, 46, 52–3 small business, women, London (19th century) 28–9, 35, 201–5 social capital 65
sociological analysis 23–4 sources, study of careers 17–22 specialized knowledge 14–15 spouse 65
status 92–3; attainment 56, 57 steelworkers, Italy (1900–29) 32–3, 305–17; family 312–5; job mobility 309–12; landowners 312–5; World War I 307–8 strikebreakers, railway workers, Canada 133–4 strikes 27; printing industry, Argentina 167–8, 179–180, 181; railway workers, Canada 130–135, 139–42; railway workers, U.S. 138–9, 148, 151–3 success, chemists, Great Britain 329–331 Sun Fire Insurance Office 28–9 surveillance model 82–3 survival curve 59
Sweden, careers, total male labour force (18th to 19th century), 229–260; occupation by age 236–7 teachers 47–8, 217–8 tenure 44–6, 71; printing industry, Argentina 179, 180–181, 185; railway workers, U.S. 157–9; see also job stability trade unions; see unions training 8–9, 13; girls, England 196–7; on-the-job 49, 52–3; railway workers, U.S., 148–9; steelworkers, Italy 311; teachers 48–9; turnover and 104; working class, Germany 262–4, 278 turnover 31, 44, 45, 46, 50–51, 52; cost 12–13, 53, 103–4; police force, England 103–5; rate 50; teachers 47–8 typesetters 170, 173
typographers 27, 172, 177, 178
Union Bank of Australia 51 unions 13, 26, 27, 51; farm workers, England 299; printing industry, Argentina 167, 172; railway workers, Canada 126–44; railway workers, U.S. 148 149; see also  strikes upward mobility; see job mobility vacancy-competition theory 64, 70 Vincent’s typology 7–8 voluntary work 216–7
wage bargaining, railway workers, Canada 135–9 wages: farm workers, England 292–5, 301; police force, London 119; railway workers, Canada and U.S. 140; steelworkers, Italy 314, 315; teachers 48
Weber, Max 10
Whiting, Henry 110, 111
widowhood, Great Britain 191, 192, 197, 217 Winnipeg General Strike 139–42 work-life history 5–6, 8
World War I: railway workers, Canada 137–9; railway workers, U.S. 150–159; steelworkers, Italy 307–8
World War II: railway workers, U.S. 159–160