

"Setting the Agenda for a Long-Term, World Migration History"

[Forster, Peter & Matsumura, Shuichi (2005). Did Early Humans Go North or South? Science, Vol 308, Issue 5724, 965-966, 13 May 2005]

Netherlands Institute of Advanced Studies (NIAS), Wassenaar 16-17 December 2005

Organisers

dr. Ulbe Bosma (International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam)

dr. David Feldman (Birkbeck, University of London)

dr. Nancy Green (École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, Paris)

dr. Gijs Kessler (International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam / Moscow)

dr. Jan Lucassen (International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam)

dr. Leo Lucassen (University of Leiden/ University of Amsterdam)

This workshop was made possible by: The NIAS, The N.W. Posthumus Institute, Sephis and the Unger van Brerofonds

Programme of the workshop

Day 1 (Friday 16-12):

- 9.00-9.30: Welcome and coffee
- 9.30-9.40: Opening by prof. dr. Wim Blockmans, rector of the NIAS
- 9.40-10.40: The aims of the workshop: dr. Jan Lucassen (IISH, Amsterdam and dr. Leo Lucassen (University of Amsterdam)
- 10.40-11.10: Different periodisations: dr. Patrick Manning (Northeastern University) and dr. Dirk Hoerder (University of Bremen)
- 11.10-11.40 Different geographical horizons: dr. Adam McKeown (Columbia University) and dr. Prabhu Mohapatra (University of Delhi)
- 11.40-12.00 Different categories, migration and diaspora: dr. Donna Gabaccia (University of Minnesota)
- 12.00-12.45: Plenary discussion
- 12.45-14.00: Lunch
- 14.00-15.30: The Sciences part 1
- Historical linguistics and migration, a general overview: dr. Chris Ehret (UCLA, Los Angeles)
- Historical linguistics and the Pacific Islands: dr. Andrew Pawley (Australian National University)
- 15.30-16.00: Tea
- 16.00-16.45: The Sciences part 2
- The Archaeolinguistics of Migration. Hunter-gatherers and farmers: dr. Patrick McConvell (AIATSIS)
- 16.45-17.45 Plenary discussion on the three presentations.
- DRINKS and DINNER

Day 2 (Saturday 17-12)

9.30-9.45: Welcome and coffee

9.45-12.00 The Sciences part 3

Physical Anthropology: dr. Shomarka Keita (Howard University)

Population Genetics: dr. Jaume Bertranpetit (Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona)

12.00-12.45: Plenary discussion on the three contributions

12.45-14.00: Lunch

14.00-15.00: What have we learned? Preliminary conclusions: dr. Nancy L. Green (EHESS) and dr. David Feldman (Birkbeck College)

15.00-15.30: Tea

15.30-17.00 What have we learned? Plenary discussion

DRINKS and DINNER